

REEL SESSIONS

Reel Sessions are a dynamic and highly talented trio who write and produce some of the most outstanding house music to come out of Australia. Reel Sessions consists of musician and songwriter James Billings, DJ and producer; Damien Goundrie and musician and producer Dean Belcastro. Together the three have a fantastic synergy and through their work with a range of performers, they have created some truly amazing music.

Live shows by Reel Sessions are a fantastic experience, with Damien on the decks bringing together a collection of original music by Reel Sessions combined with disco, deep house, acapellas and anything else that will bring the party atmosphere to the dance floor. Damien is joined on stage by the talented Kristen Pearson, who's powerful vocals feature on their Hed Kandi hit "Take Me". Reel Sessions' live shows can range from a sultry down tempo feel to an insanely upbeat, dance floor filling, heart pounding experience.

Having performed at some of the top venues across Australia such as Opera Bar, Arthouse, Bungalow 8, The Metro (Melbourne) and The Courthouse (Perth), Reel Sessions track record for live shows is impeccable. They have also supported the likes of Boy George, Malente, and Chris Coco.

In the studio, Reel Sessions have created an array of original work including their chart topping track titled 'Take Me' which was released on the Deep House Project label in 2008. This track featured on a range of compilation albums including Hemmesphere 5, Kiss FM 2008, Stereo Sushi 14 (UK), and Disco Heaven 8 (UK). They also gained international acclaim with a remix of "Take Me" done by house music legend, Richard Earnshaw. Also available is a collection of self-released tracks including Fish, Set You Free, You Are Here and Get With You, which have been hits on dance floors across the world.

Reel Sessions are soon to release their next single, 'So Where Were We', which has already been licensed to the Moonlight Sounds compilation and Hed Kandi the Mix 09. Hot on its heels will be the follow-up, 'Now I Know' which features a host of international remixes by Jay-J, Jack McCord and Stonebridge. This track is set to rip up dance floors across Australia and internationally in summer 2009/10.

Do not miss Reel Sessions as they take on the world.
